2018/2019 SEASON

where community stars shine

WELCOME TO
SIMCOE LITTLE THEATRE'S
2018/2019 SEASON

Simcoe Little Theatre welcomes you to our 73rd year and is pleased to offer a great variety of drama, comedy and classics for your enjoyment.

Simcoe Little Theatre welcomes back veteran directors as well as new ones. An exciting time for our theatre.

Won't you please join us by purchasing a season subscription, a voting membership and/or volunteering for one of our many departments?

Simcoe Little Theatre is working towards an online ticket system during the 2018-2019 season. To avoid the small administration fee, be sure to book your season subscriptions early.

Simcoe Little Theatre is extremely proud of all our volunteers who manage the facilities, keep the lights on, assist patrons to their seats, and keep our audiences entertained.

Donations are happily accepted. Tax receipts are issued annually.

THE CHRISTMAS EXPRESS — NOV/DECEMBER 2018

By Pat Cook
Directed By Randy and Kelly McGivern

The arrival of a stranger to the Holly Railway Station, the day before Christmas Eve, seems to be changing the hopeless and sleepy town for the better.
This witty and funny play is full of eccentric and wise cracking characters Will they all find the true wonder of Christmas?

WAITING FOR GODOT — FEBRUARY 2019

By Samuel Beckett
Directed By Matthew Wilson

Two wandering tramps wait by a lonely tree, to meet up with Mr Godot - an enigmatic figure in a world where time, place and memory are blurred and meaning is where you find it. When two eccentric characters arrive instead, the results are both funny and dangerous in this existential masterpiece.

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE — APRIL 2019

Book by Joseph Kesselring
Directed By Sarah Finch and Alayna Simpson

Meet two charming and innocent ladies who populate their cellar with the remains of socially and religiously acceptable roomers; their brother who thinks he's Teddy Roosevelt; and the unsavoury activities of the other brother.
You're sure to enjoy this comedic hit!

PICASSO AT THE LAPIN AGILE — JUNE 2019

By Steve Martin
Directed By Val Smith

Picasso and Einstein meet at a bar in Paris in 1904, shortly before Einstein's theory of relativity transforms physics and Picasso's cubism sets the world afire.
An array of colourful characters and fanciful topics of conversation add flourishes of humor and infectious dizziness to this long running Off Broadway absurdist comedy.
