NICE WORK IF YOU CAN GET IT

DIRECTED BY JANET DICKSON & JOANNE POND (ASSISTANT)

This 1920s-set musical comedy features the music of George and Ira Gershwin. The story centers around young and wealthy Jimmy Winter, who is about to marry a self-absorbed dancer, Eileen Evergreen. However, his plans are complicated when he meets Billie Bendix, a tough female bootlegger, who stashes gin in his Long Island mansion. The musical follows the ensuing chaos as Jimmy tries to juggle his impending nuptials, the arrival of prohibitionists, and the presence of Billie and her gang, all while falling for Billie. The show features classic Gershwin tunes like "Someone to Watch Over Me" and "Let's Call the Whole Thing Off" woven into a comedic plot.

CHESS: THE MUSICAL/IN CONCERT

DIRECTED BY ANDY DOMINICK

Nobody is on Nobody's side in this classic 1986 rock musical by Abba's Bjorn Uvaleus and Benny Anderson with a book by Tim Rice. Loosely based off real "Match of the Century" during the Cold-War, Chess follows Freddie, the eccentric egotistical American Grandmaster, defending his title against Anatoly, the conflicted Soviet grandmaster. Behind the scenes, Soviet representative Molokov and American television producer Walter are pulling strings to decide the fate of the game. Between it all is Florence, a Hungarian refugee who is also Freddie's lover. However, after Freddie crosses the line, she begins to develop feelings for Anatoly. How does this affect the game? Who wins? Featuring classic songs such as "One Night in Bangkok" and "Heaven Help my Heart".
